

Ooni Pizza Oven Brush

Short Description

Created to fit perfectly in our ovens, the Ooni Pizza Oven Brush is engineered from durable matte-finished bamboo and stainless steel. It doubles as both a brush and scraper—one side sweeps away debris, the other removes burnt-on food with ease. When you're done, a built-in hanging hole makes it simple to store.

Long Description

Created to perfectly fit into our range of ovens, the Ooni Pizza Oven Brush is expertly engineered from highly-durable matte-finished bamboo and stainless steel. It cleverly doubles up as a brush and scraper. So one side lets you brush away any debris or excess flour. Then simply flip it over and use the other side to effortlessly clean up any burnt food. And, when you're not savouring delicious pizza with friends and family, you can easily store the brush on a hook, as it comes with a handy hole on the end of the handle.

Features and Benefits

- Designed to perfectly fit Ooni ovens: Specifically created for Ooni ovens, our Pizza Oven Brush makes cleaning and reaching all 4 corners of the pizza stone simple and easy.
- 2-in-1 brush and scraper: One side has stainless steel bristles, the other has a stainless steel scraper.
- Semi-flexible stainless steel bristles: Engineered for easy removal of debris or flour from the stone.
- Firm stainless steel scraper: For easily cleaning tough pizza spills and burnt on marks from the stone.
- Highly durable: Made from durable bamboo with a blackened finish to protect from the seriously high heat in an Ooni oven.
- Engineered to last: Highly durable and comes with a two year warranty (one year, plus another when you register).
- Hang hole: This handy hole easily lets you store your Pizza Oven Brush when you're not using it – and it fits perfectly on our range of Ooni table hooks.
